

Abstract of the Disclosure

Play of a game is controlled using an indicator card. The indicator card is optionally the size and shape of a playing card and may include indicia thereon. The indicator card is inserted into a randomized stack of playing cards. From the top of the stack to the indicator card, play is conducted in conventional fashion while permitting additional players to join. When the indicator card is reached, the indicator card is optionally displayed and play is conducted in conventional fashion without permitting additional players to join.
